

WORLD INDIGENOUS NATIONS HIGHER EDUCATION CONSORTIUM

2022 WINHEC Circle of Honours

DUE: April 30, 2022

WINHEC Circle of Honours

The WINHEC Executive Co-Chairs are pleased to announce the '2022 CALL for WINHEC Circle of Honours' that advances WINHEC's Mission and Goals, to:

1. Recognise the significance of Indigenous education and the educational rights of Indigenous Peoples;
2. Accelerate the articulation of Indigenous epistemologies (ways of knowing, education, philosophy, and research); and
3. Protect and enhance Indigenous spiritual beliefs, cultures and languages through higher education.

Categories for WINHEC Circle of Honours:

- CHIEFS OF INDIGENOUS LEADERSHIP
- ELDERS OF INDIGENOUS WISDOM
- SCHOLARS OF INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE
- SERVICE TO INDIGENOUS EDUCATION

Guide to Nominations

1. Nominations may be made by any member who represents a member body of WINHEC, by completing this nomination form and forwarding it to: winhecawards@gmail.com
Any prior queries regarding the process can be sent to the WINHEC Executive Co-Chairs who will respond to any queries prior to submitting nominations:
Jolan Hsieh at: jolan@gms.ndhu.edu.tw and
Elmer Guy at: eguy@navajotech.edu
2. Nominations must be received by April 30, 2022 and confirmation / notifications will be sent to successful nominees / recipients of awards by 31 May 2022, in time for processing and allowing for Honourees to make arrangements to attend the 2022 WINHEC Annual General Meeting, scheduled for July 2022.
3. Wherever possible, and after a nomination has been lodged, the WINHEC Executive Co-Chairs should be advised if there are any changes made to the information supplied for the nomination of a WINHEC Circle of Honours Award. These changes may include a change of Nominees address, circumstances, or even death.
4. Nominations of persons whose services are related to their employment, as either a WINHEC employee, or as the employee of a WINHEC member body, should in the first

- instance be forwarded to their own CEO for consideration before being sent to the Awards Secretariat.
5. WINHEC Executive Co-Chairs will assess all submissions and forward nominations to the WINHEC Executive Board for ratification. Upon ratification, nominators will be notified of the outcome of each nomination.
 6. The number of honours available for award may be limited according to the number of nominations received and therefore not all of the people nominated may be given recognition. It is important for interested parties to realise that an honour will not be automatically awarded following the submission of a name for consideration.
 7. Death of a Nominee: Consideration for a WINHEC Circle of Honour Award will be given to nominations of persons deceased since the last AGM.
 8. Confidentiality of Nominations: All nominations for awards are treated in the strictest of confidence. Details of the person making the nomination are not disclosed.
 9. Withdrawal of an Award: The selection of recipients for consideration and subsequent recommendation and acceptance reflects the nominations received and information available at the time. WINHEC reserves the right to withdraw an award if further information or the recipient's conduct draws WINHEC Circle of Honours Awards into disrepute.

Description of Categories

❖ CHIEFS OF INDIGENOUS LEADERSHIP

Requirements: A Past WINHEC Chairperson / Executive Co-Chair.

The Chiefs of Indigenous Leadership is automatically offered to past Chairpersons / Executive Co-Chairs, upon honourable completion of their term of office. The purpose of this award is to provide recognition of the highest order for people who have served WINHEC as Chairperson and have concluded their time in office.
